Dear Mr Nanjundiah

4.7 168-01-2

With reference to your D.O. of 5 instant regarding the classification of receipts and expenditure in the books of this office I beg to state that of the proposals contained in Mr Biddulph's memo on the above the proposals 1, 2, 3, 4, 8, 9, 10, 11 & 13 have been given effect to fully.

The proposals 5, 6 & 7 are still under consideration. Our present classification gives more details (such as salaries of Dy Commissioners, Asst. Dr Officers &c) instead of grouping them all under one head "Salaries"

"Establishment is required to be sub-divided into "clerks" and servants but in our classification a Deputy Commissioner's establishment is sub-divided into (1) English Department (2) Revenue Department & so on - It remains to be decided whether these sub-divisions should be altered to only "Clerks" & "Servants". I have very strong reasons to continue the existing classification in these two instances & I shall discuss the matter at the next interdepartmental audit, and settle it.

Process establishments are not mixed up with other establishments.

As regards grouping heads, I have still great doubts about their adoption in preference to the present heads which exhibit the details of charges under each class of officers such as Deputy Commissioners, Sub Divisn officers Assistant Commissioners &c. The question also I have received for discussion during the next outside audit.

Proposal No 12 - All Investment Accounts will be consolidated into one head "Trust Funds" on receipt of a

This letter is cited by the Edr. of Edn. & have been fwd to the Devan. Connection with proposal from the Govt. of Edn. - the investment of Educational Endowments from private persons.

reply to this Office No 6570 (X) dated 21st May 1901 The number of minor heads under D.V. Remittances will be similarly reduced - As regards your query as to how far the suggestions of Mr Boddulph's on Accounts Procedure laid down in the Office Manual have been adopted, I beg to invite your attention to this Office No 1113 (+) dated 5 August 1898 and to state that the instructions contained in the rules 22, 118, 127, 129(o), 132(h), 159(a to g), 192, 201, 211, 212, 222 223 258 318 & 324 referred to in the list enclosed therein are now being carried out

I regret I have no copy of Office Manual to spare.

About 10 Copies out of 60 copies recently sent to me have already been supplied to your Office & that of Publishing Dept &c.

Yours sincerely

E Norbury
